

I have enjoyed peace and quiet from telemarketers with their many offers of things they think I want. Being on the Indiana Call list is a great thing. I do not want to give this up. So I'm asking that the FTC petition be removed to allow these people to harrass others.